CAPP. BEATTIE ATTACKED.

Commonwealth's Attorney Crandall Mackey, of Alexandria county, reesatly sent a letter to Capt. Fountsin Beattie, U. S. deputy internal revenus collector, asking information concerning the number of liquor licenses granted by the government in Alexandria county Captain Beattle sent a respectful reply to the effect that it would be an infraction of rules to transmit the information sought by Mr. Mackey. Mr. Mackey then, it is said, went to Mr. Capers, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and hitterly denounced Capt Besttie, and, it is said, designating him as a superanit is said, designating him as a superan-nated hader. A number of Capisin Beattic's friends, upon learning of Mr. Mackey's action, without apprising Cap'. Beattie of their intention, called on Mr. Capers in his behalf. The del-egation was composed of Congressman Carlin, Mayor Pell, Judge Barley and Messre, Geo. K. Psckett, M. B. Harlow, Martin Greene and James F. Peyton. Mr. Carlin introduced his associates and while Judge Barley and Mayor Pell were while Judge Barley and Mayor Paff were while Judg. Beattie, and encoriated the Commonwealth's Attorney for his un-warranted stack upon the inspector Commissioner Capers listened attentively to all that was said, and in summing up the matter said that when the A meeting of the Chamber of Comsetack was made upon Capt. Beattie he listened to it with caution, having coufidence in and respect for the official, but at the same time he realized that Mr. Mackey was the law-officer of Alexandria county, and was entitled to a hearing. He, however, told the delegation that whatever action he might take in the matter would be soley for
